Description	The Active Listening Soft Skill Development Program scheduled for 10-03-2022 at Mahila Homoeopathic Medical College &amp; Hospital is designed to enhance the communication skills of homeopathic students. Recognizing the pivotal role of active listening in effective patient-practitioner interactions, this program will delve into the principles and practices of attentive listening. Through interactive sessions, role-playing, and real-world scenarios, participants will develop the ability to focus, comprehend, and respond empathetically to patients' concerns. Facilitated by experienced communication experts, the program aims to equip students with a valuable skill set that goes beyond traditional medical training. By fostering active listening skills, Mahila Homoeopathic Medical College &amp; Hospital aims to ensure that its graduates are not only clinically competent but also adept at building strong, trusting relationships with patients, thus contributing to a more patient-centric and compassionate healthcare environment.
